Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Lake Norden is a city in Hamlin County, South Dakota, that was laid out in 1907 and named after a lake near the town site; and,

Whereas, Lake Norden is a tourist attraction with its historical sites such as the 1882 Kirk's Country School House, First Evangelical Lutheran Church Bell, the South Dakota Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame Museum, the Historical Society Museum that showcases many items and antique farm machinery, the Donald Christman Toy Museum that displays antique toys, and the Davisco Foods International Incorporated plant which produces and ships many food ingredients, including whey protein products and cheese; and,

Whereas, Lake Norden has continued to prosper because of honest, hard-working, and family-oriented people, making it a tremendous place to live and grow; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is traveling to meet the people of Lake Norden in a unique program called "Capital for a Day"; and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum where an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns are discussed among the Governor, private business representatives, local elected officials, and the general public:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 28, 2016, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
